

Canadian Cattle In Britain

Excellent Market for Canadian Steers in Old Country

Col. H. A. Mullins, of Winnipeg, has returned after a tour of England, Scotland and Ireland, investigating cattle conditions there. He found the Canadian steers doing very well in the United Kingdom with the market practically to themselves.

The Canadian shippers must be educated, he said, to ship their cattle during the six months from December to May, inclusive, when they would

Famous House Needs Repairing

British Premiers Have Lived At No. 10 Downing St. Since 1735

Two of London's famous old houses—Nos. 10 and 11 Downing Street respectively—the official homes of the premier and chancellor of the exchequer, are now in such a state of decay that the government is considering whether it is desirable to pull them down and rebuild instead of making further repairs. The two

Express says that much money has been spent, from time to time, renovating the inside and outside of the houses, but that each inspection reveals that something further must be done. Some of the walls seem to rest on crumbling foundations, although the buildings are not very old, as old houses go, having been built about 200 years ago.

Local and District

A dinner was held in Blair School

Friday night.

Mrs. F. E. Givens, in the guest of Mrs. G. W. H. H. H.

Fred Dingel shipped a mixed load of cattle to Calgary

Tuesday.

We are sorry to hear that Mr.

D. McPherson is still confined to his room at Calgary.

A. F. Cobb was a business visitor to Calgary Sunday, returning home

Tuesday night.

The first electric storm of the season passed over this district

Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. Stevenson is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr.

and Mrs. J. A. Gault.

Mrs. Roy Spedden and children left last week for Fort George, where they will spend the next two months.

Fred Dingel has already 600 acres of wheat seeded, and all of which is above ground. He is putting in 1,000 acres this season.

See "A Day with the Tractor

and the Tractor in Industry," in the issue of the Times of April 24, 25 and 26.

Also spending the winter in Delia, Fred Dingel is now at his farm at Springwater and will again attempt to raise a crop.

J. S. McMurphy, of the Northern

Trust Co., Calgary, who has been in a number of properties in the village, completed his duties on Friday last.

Mrs. and Mrs. G. A. Richardson

left Monday for Calgary, the latter being en route to Idaho where he will be spending the next two months.

At a meeting of the Springwater

Local Fire Association held on Monday night it was decided to hold the annual fire on Sept. 4.

T. P. Somers said "Shorty"

Thompson, of Lumberton, was business visitors in town Monday.

"Shorty" reports a poor demand for horses at present.

Seeding is now in full progress and the land is good shape again

after the torrential downpours of Friday night when it is estimated over an inch of rain fell.

Mrs. W. L. Nugent, who has been spending a couple of months at the Eastview Hotel, is now in Delia while Alberta's business was more striking, the gain being from 17,000 pounds to 21,500 pounds.

Shipment of butter to the United States has increased lately and the applies in that country due to the increase of production there compared with the domestic demand. The increase in the value of dairy production in Canada is $255,000 annually. This exports that the Canadian dairy industry is making a steady and rapid growth in the Dominion by $255,000.

Canada's gain in this industry has been so great that it is now able to export surplus butter and cheese to the United States and other foreign markets. The value of the exports of butter and cheese in 1925 was $1,000,000.

Mr. Jackson, of Calgary, who has been successful in getting the construction of the new branch of the C.N.R. has been appointed as headmaster at Hume

High School. He is expected to be appointed in a day or two and will be in charge of the school.

At a meeting of the Farmers' Exhibition Association, held in Blair

School Friday night.
